HOLLINGBERRY
& SON, INC. HOPS

Hollingbery & Son, Inc. has sourced hops for over 70 years from our offices in the Yakima Valley—the heart of one of the world’s largest hop-producing regions. The brokerage was established in 1944 by Babe Hollingbery and is now in its fourth generation of family operation. We specialize in providing personalized service to meet the specific hopping needs of brewers, dealers, wholesalers, and retailers. We utilize extensive knowledge of available hop varieties, factors that influence supply, current market trends, and long-standing grower relations to meet the needs of our valued customers. Our warehouses can provide refrigerated storage for fresh and pelletized hops each season, and we ship hops throughout the world.

Mill 95 is an independent, progressive service provider to craft brewers and hop growers. The Mill was inspired by southwest Idaho's vibrant hop cultivation and culture along Idaho's Route 95. Founder Jamie Scott acted from conviction that local capability to evaluate, care for, and process hops would be valued by brewers and growers alike. Mill 95 offers premium hops from Idaho, the Pacific Northwest, and beyond and is supported by expertise, scale, and agility directed toward quality, service, and community.

Selection quality, public variety spot hops with Midwest terroir. Some say our hops' extra fruitiness comes from our low heat/ambient oast and pellet mill exit temps, others say it comes from our sweet, Midwest farmers' tender loving care. What's certain is we deliver high-quality hops and genuine customer service. We are 100% grower-owned and independently operated.
